Story Structure

There was once a pirate that didn't quite fit in. Jack Scallywag did not like to steal or scare. The young lad sat back while the crew robbed ships sailing the sea. Then one day, he said, "Look, buccaneers, this has to stop. Let's stop taking what belongs to others and let's find buried treasure that someone forgot. Then, we share it with others who might have a need." The crew looked back, and one said in surprise, "Well, shiver me timbers!" Captain Sea Dog thought for a moment, then said "Great idea Jack! Yo ho ho, let's make it so."

Story Structure

Piper looked up at the Ferris wheel spinning over the park. Butterflies seemed to swim in her stomach. Her hands were getting sweaty. Andrew, her best friend, only wanted one thing for his birthday - Piper to ride the Ferris wheel with him. She was afraid, but she had to do it. Piper and Andrew got in their seats and buckled in. She closed her eyes tightly as they started to move. Finally, she opened her eyes; she could see everything - all the games and rides and people! "Wow!" she thought. "Ferris wheels are pretty amazing!"
