

MAKING CONNECTIONS

Determine if each book is historical, scientific, or technical. Draw and drop the book into the correct category.

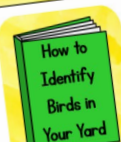

Historical Text

Scientific Text

Technical Text

2nd & 3rd
Grade

Nonfiction Connections

DIGITAL Mini lessons

Let's Read!

Listen to the book "I Am Harriet Tubman". How are the events connected in this text?

Read Along with Xavier Riddle
Creator Brad Meltzer!

Let's Practice!

After listening to the book "I Am Harriet Tubman", sort the events into the proper boxes to show the how the events in this text are related.

Cause	Effect	Effect
Enslavers tried to take Harriet's brother.
Harriet was 7. She took a lump of sugar.	Eventually the North won the Civil War and slavery ended
Harriet ran away to someone else's farm
	Harriet decided to escape through the Underground Railroad to Pennsylvania.
	She decided to continue to make trips to help others
The Civil War began		Harriet became known as the "Moses" of her people

Let's Practice!

After listening to the book "Wild Dogs and Canines", compare and contrast the facts presented.

Wild Dogs and Canines are Similar Because...

--	--	--

Bush Dog

Dhole

Coyote

--

--

--

MAKING CONNECTIONS

Watch the video about making connections between historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in a technical procedure.

Historical Texts

- Often written in sequential order
- Can show how events are connected through cause and effect relationships

