

REPORT Writing

- TOPICS CAN BE
- Animals
- PARTS OF A REPORT
1. Title
 2. Introduction
 - You introduce your topic.
 3. Body
 - The main part of your report where you share all your information.
 4. Conclusion
 - The ending part where you wrap up your report.

INTERACTIVE JOURNAL

REPORT WRITING

Author:

REPORT WRITING

Report. What is the author's topic? _____

Introduction in _____

Body in _____

Conclusion in _____

Pearly Whites: A Toothbrush's Journey

A toothbrush was invented over 500 years ago. This seemingly simple tool, a rich and intriguing history. From its initial creation to its evolution into a modern toothbrush's journey mirrors the progress of human ingenuity and health.

ancient times. The earliest known tooth-cleaning tools date back to the Egyptians, who used chew sticks made from twigs to clean their teeth. This method was effective in removing food particles and debris.

In 1498, the Chinese created toothbrushes made of hog bristles. These bristle brushes reached Europe in the 17th century and gained popularity. Synthetic bristles made from animal hair or plant fibers became a significant advancement with the introduction of the modern toothbrush. This innovation made toothbrushes more effective and didn't harbor bacteria.

Today, there are many choices. Manual toothbrushes with various bristle patterns, introduced in the mid-20th century, have become popular. They often come with features like timers and built-in mirrors. Electric toothbrushes are designed for specific needs, such as whitening or sensitive teeth. Biodegradable materials are also available, reflecting a growing concern for the environment.

Ingenuity and the importance of oral health.

4TH & 5TH GRADE

PRINT & DIGITAL

Magi
CORE

WHAT'S INSIDE?

19 Lessons to Cover an Entire Report Writing Unit.

Each Lesson Includes:

- Lesson Plan
- Introductory Page
- Anchor Charts
- Templates
- Graphic Organizers
- Rubric

INTERACTIVE NOTEBOOK

Lesson #1

REPORT

A report is a special type of writing where you share information about a topic

TOPICS CAN BE

Animals

PARTS OF A REPORT

1. Title

2. Introduction

- You introduce your topic.

3. Body

- The main part of your report where you share all your information.

4. Conclusion

- The ending part where you wrap up your report.

Prince Harry

Prince Harry's world. Let's explore his life.

Early Life

Prince Harry was born on September 15, 1984, in London and the late Princess Diana. He is a member of the British Royal Family and attended exclusive schools. He also lives as a soldier in the British Army.

Military Service

One of the reasons he joined the military was to serve his country. He was sent to Afghanistan as a soldier.

His story is different from most people's. He also has a lot of fans.

INTERACTIVE JOURNAL

REPORT WRITING

Author: _____

REPORT WRITING

Report. What is the author's topic? _____

Introduction in _____

Body in _____

Conclusion in _____

Pearly Whites: A Toothbrush's Journey

Brush was invented over 500 years ago? This seemingly simple tool, a rich and intriguing history. From its initial creation to its evolution into toothbrush's journey mirrors the progress of human ingenuity and health.

ancient times. The earliest known tooth-cleaning tools date back to Babylonians, who used chew sticks made from twigs to clean their teeth. A simple but effective in removing food particles and debris.

d. In 1498, the Chinese created toothbrushes made of hog bristles. The bristle brushes reached Europe in the 17th century and gained synthetic bristles made from animal hair or plant fibers became a significant advancement with the introduction of the modern plastic bristles. This innovation made toothbrushes quickly and didn't harbor bacteria.

e of choices. Manual toothbrushes with various bristle toothbrushes, introduced in the mid-20th century, have different features. They often come with features like timers and biodegradable materials are also available, reflecting a commitment to dental health has come a long way. A toothbrush remains an essential tool in maintaining

ANCHOR CHARTS FOR EACH UNIT

Lesson #1

REPORT WRITING

✓

✓

✗

A report is a special type of writing where authors share information about a topic

TOPICS CAN BE

Animals

Science

History

PARTS OF A REPORT

1. Title

2. Introduction

- You introduce your topic.

3. Body

- The main part of your report where you share all your information.

4. Conclusion

- The ending part where you wrap up your report.

Prince Harry: A Royal Journey

Prince Harry is a well-known figure in the United Kingdom and around the world. Let's explore his life and some interesting facts about him.

Early Life

Prince Harry, whose full name is Henry Charles Albert David, was born on September 15, 1984, in London, England. He is the younger son of Prince Charles and the late Princess Diana. Harry has an older brother, Prince William. As a member of the British royal family, Prince Harry grew up in the spotlight. He attended exclusive schools and was involved in various royal events and ceremonies. Despite the attention, he and his brother tried to live as normal lives as possible.

Military Service

One of the most remarkable things about Prince Harry is his dedication to serving his country. He joined the British Army and even served in Afghanistan as a helicopter pilot. His military service was a source of pride for him and his family.

Humanitarian Work

Prince Harry is also known for his humanitarian efforts. He has traveled to different parts of the world to support charitable causes, especially those related to veterans, mental health, and children in need.

Prince Harry has a unique life as a member of the royal family, but he also shows us the importance of serving others and being involved in charitable work. His journey reminds us that we can all make a positive impact in our communities and the world.

Lesson #1

REPORT WRITING

Read this report. What is the author's topic? _____

Underline the introduction in

Underline the body in Underline the conclusion in

The Pursuit of Your Pearly Whites: A Toothbrush's Journey

Did you know that the first toothbrush was invented over 500 years ago? This seemingly simple tool, a cornerstone of our daily oral hygiene, has a rich and intriguing history. From its initial creation to its evolution into the advanced dental tool we use today, the toothbrush's journey mirrors the progress of human ingenuity and health awareness.

The First Toothbrush

The story of the toothbrush begins in ancient times. The earliest tooth-cleaning tools date back to ancient civilizations like the Egyptians and Babylonians, who used chew sticks made from twigs to clean their teeth. These early tooth-cleaning methods were rudimentary but effective in removing food particles and debris.

Evolution

As time passed, tooth-cleaning tools evolved. In the 14th century, the Chinese created toothbrushes made of hog bristles attached to handles made of bone or bamboo. These brushes reached Europe in the 17th century and gained popularity. By the 19th century, toothbrushes with synthetic bristles made from animal hair or plant fibers became widely available. The late 19th century brought a significant advancement with the introduction of the modern toothbrush. In 1938, nylon bristles were developed, replacing natural bristles. This innovation made toothbrushes more comfortable and hygienic, as nylon bristles dried quickly and didn't harbor bacteria.

The Market Today

Today, the toothbrush market offers a wide range of choices. Manual toothbrushes with various bristle types and shapes cater to individual preferences. Electric toothbrushes, introduced in the mid-20th century, have gained popularity for their effective cleaning and convenience. They often come with features like timers and pressure sensors to ensure thorough brushing. Additionally, toothbrushes designed for specific needs, such as sensitive teeth or orthodontic care. Eco-friendly options with biodegradable materials are also available, reflecting a growing awareness of sustainability.

The history of the toothbrush is a testament to human ingenuity and the importance of oral hygiene. From ancient chew sticks to the advanced toothbrushes of today, our commitment to dental health has come a long way. As we continue to innovate and adapt to changing needs, the toothbrush remains an essential tool in maintaining healthy smiles worldwide.

BRAINSTORMING TO PUBLISHING

Take Students Through the Entire Writing Process

BRAINSTORMING

Informational Report Writing:

- Teaches a reader about a non-fiction topic
- Author gives information about a topic that is organized into subtopics
- Author supports writing with research and quality reference sources

Informational Report Ideas

REPORT WRITING

A report is a special type of writing where you share information.

REPORT TOPICS

Authors write about topics they are experts on. Write three nonfiction topics you know or want to learn about.

★ _____

★ _____

★ _____

Circle the topic you would like to write about first.

TOPIC SELECTION

✓ +	✓ -
I selected a topic I am knowledgeable about.	I did not select a topic.

SCAFOLDED ORGANIZERS

Lesson
#5

USING QUOTATIONS & REFERENCES

When writing a report, it is best that most of the information is written in your own words. However, if you need to share a fact, statistic, or commentary from an expert, you can use quotations and references to avoid plagiarism and give credit to the original source.

Examples:

- Earth Day was not always a popular holiday, however according to National Geographic, "by 1990, Earth Day was an event celebrated by more than 140 countries around the globe."
- During Barack Obama's Farewell Presidential address, he told the audience, "Now, this is where I learned that change only happens when ordinary people get involved, and they get engaged, and they come together to demand it."
- The overall goal of the Constitution of the United States is to "establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity" as written in its preamble.
- According to the American Kennel Club, "There are over 75 million pet dogs in the U.S.- more than in any other country."

Lesson
#5

NOTE TAKING ORGANIZER

When you do your research, it is important to keep in mind you need plenty of facts and details so you can write juicy paragraphs.

Topic: _____

Subtopic: _____

Fact #1: _____

Fact #2: _____

Fact #3: _____

Sources I Used:

References:

NOTE-TAKING

✓+	✓	✓-
I have three or four clear subtopics that focus on my topic.	I have two clear subtopics that focus on my topic.	I have one clear subtopic that focuses on my topic.

STRATEGIES WITH SAMPLE ANSWERS

Lesson #16

References

At the end of the report, you should include a list of the sources you used to help you write the report. This gives credit to other authors for their knowledge and helps the reader find more information on the topic.

References
Include as much information as you can about the source:
• Title of Source • Author • Date of Publication • Type of Source
Example:
Title: The Many Habitats of the Saltwater Dolphin
Author: Evan Cowley
Date of Publication: July 31st, 2020
Type of Source: Book

REFERENCES

Source:
Title
Author
Date of Publication
Type of Source

Source:
Title
Author
Date of Publication
Type of Source

Source:
Title
Author
Date of Publication
Type of Source

Source:
Title
Author
Date of Publication
Type of Source

Make Teaching a Breeze!

SAMPLE TEXTS FOR PRACTICE

JUICY PARAGRAPHS

Lesson
#7

JUICY PARAGRAPHS

The body paragraphs hold the majority of the information of your report. They are in between the introduction and the conclusion. To write successful body paragraphs, be sure to do the following:

1. Include enough information so the topic is fully covered.
2. Put your paragraphs in a logical order.
3. Organize your paragraphs under topic headings.
4. Enhance each paragraph with facts, details, definitions & quotes.
5. Use linking words to connect your ideas and details.
6. Connect sections of your writing using transition words.
7. Write with precise language and vocabulary.
8. Add multimedia to aid reader comprehension.

Facts and details are the meat and toppings of your paragraph! This is where your readers will learn important details and facts about your subtopic. Don't skimp on the toppings!

©Julie Becker

Lesson
#7

JUICY PARAGRAPHS

Read the following paragraphs. Underline each portion of the paragraph in the color indicated.

- | | |
|---------------------|--|
| Topic Sentence | |
| Fact #1 | |
| Fact #2 | |
| Fact #3 | |
| Concluding Sentence | |

Dolphins are amazing creatures known for their fascinating behavior. One interesting fact about dolphins is that they are highly social animals. They often swim and play together in groups called pods. Dolphins communicate with each other using a variety of clicks, whistles, and body movements, showing how they care for their pod members. Another captivating behavior is their acrobatic displays. Dolphins can leap out of the water and perform impressive flips and spins. It's like they're putting on a water ballet for us to enjoy! Lastly, dolphins are known to be intelligent problem solvers. They can use tools, like sponges, to protect their noses while searching for food on the ocean floor. In conclusion, dolphins' social nature, acrobatic skills, and problem-solving abilities make them truly remarkable creatures to study and admire.

The early years of the Xbox video game console were a thrilling time for gamers. One fascinating fact is that the first Xbox was released by Microsoft in 2001. It was a big step for the company, entering the gaming world with a powerful console. Another exciting detail is that the Xbox introduced a unique feature called Xbox Live, allowing players to compete and connect with others online. Gamers could now challenge friends from around the world! Additionally, the Xbox controller was designed for comfort, with the innovative addition of two analog thumbsticks for precise gaming control. In those early years, Xbox brought a new era of gaming, combining cutting-edge technology with a passion for play. It was the start of an incredible journey in the world of video games.

©Julie Becker

Magi
CORE

DRAFTING TEMPLATES

- ✓ State your subtopic
- ✓ Include supporting facts
- ✓ Restate your subtopic

INTERACTIVE JOY REPORT

CONCLUSION

- ✓ Restate your opinion
- ✓ Wrap everything up

RAFTING

from Writing

Picture

MAGIC CORE

RUBRICS FOR LESSONS

Name: _____ Date: _____
REPORT TEACHING & LEARNING RUBRIC

Element	Evidence from Writing
I can write an introduction that ▪ Tells my topic ▪ Engages the reader
I have three or four clear subtopic paragraphs that are written in "cheeseburger" format.
I have three or more facts and details for each subtopic.

Name: _____
Date: _____

INTRODUCTION

✓+	✓	✓-
I engage the reader. By asking a question, using descriptive details, or stating an interesting fact.	I attempted to engage the reader by asking a question, using descriptive details, or stating an interesting fact.	I did not engage the reader.
I clearly state my topic, provide a focus, and give an overview of the information.	I state my topic and provide some focus or overview.	I do not state my topic, provide focus, or give an overview.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Heading

Number

Title:

Writing Templates and Stationary for Publishing

BY: _____

SYSTEMIC TEACHING APPROACH

Encourage Good Writing Skills and Strategies Through Systemic Teaching Approach and Modeling

UPGRADE THEIR SKILLS!

writing Bundle

4th & 5th Grade Journals

NARRATIVE writing

4th & 5th Grade

OPINION writing

4th & 5th Grade

EXplanatory writing

4th & 5th Grade

Report writing

4th & 5th Grade

Print & Digital

Love this unit, but need something more?
TRY THE BUNDLE!

