

Read and Write Numbers to 1,000

Penny the Place Value
Robot

You can represent numbers different ways.

Standard Form 251	Word Form Two hundred fifty-one
Base Ten 	Expanded Form $200+50+1=251$

©Julie Pacheco

Digital Lesson & Printable Recording Sheet

Writing Numbers in Word Form

You write numbers the same way you say them. Use place value to help figure out how to write the number. Take a look at this example.

236

The digit 2 is in the place. The value of this number is

The digit 3 is in the place. The value of this number is

two hundred
 thirty-six

The digit 6 is in the place. The value of this number is

Let's Watch!

Learn about writing numbers in word form.

©2016 P. P. P.

Explore

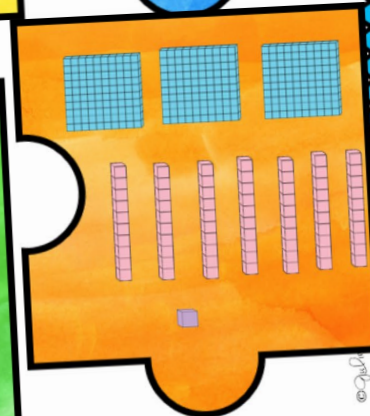

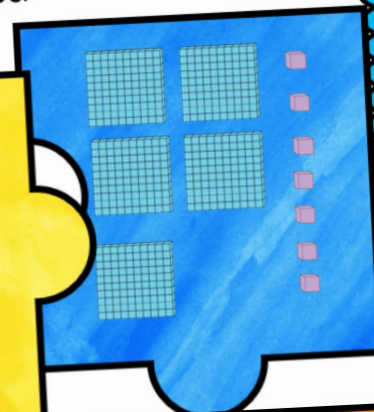

Drag and drop the puzzle pieces to complete the expanded form puzzles.

$$300 + 70 + 1 = 371$$

371

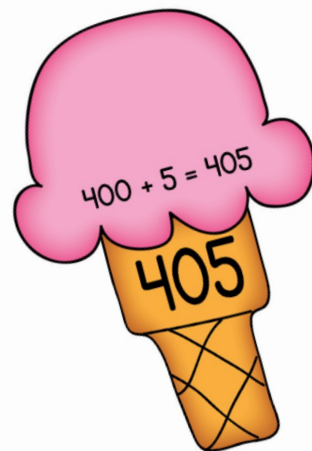

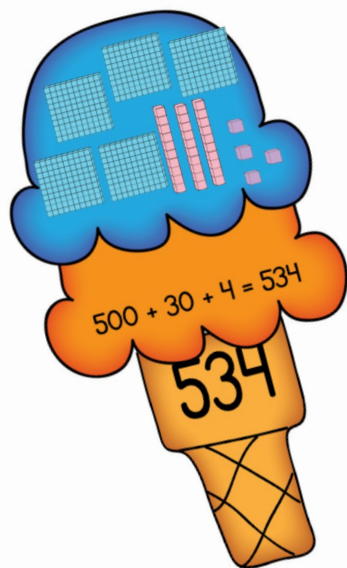

507

$$500 + 7 = 507$$

Explore

Drag and drop the puzzle pieces to complete the word form ice cream cones.

Vocabulary

Complete the vocabulary activity using "digit."

Definition

Examples and Non-Examples

245

digit

Illustration

Real World Example

CENTIMETERS 2 3

20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27

120 130 140 150 160 170 180
0 INCHES
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

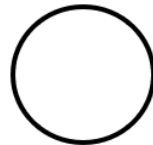

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read and Write Numbers Lesson Recording Sheet: Day 1

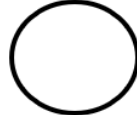

Word Form: You write numbers the same way you say them. Use place value to help figure out how to write the number. Take a look at this example.

The digit two is in the _____ place.

The value of this number is

The digit three is in the _____ place. The value of this number is 236

=

Two hundred
thirty-six

The digit six is in the _____ place.

The value of this number is

Explore: Match the numbers in standard form with the numbers in word form

365

Eight hundred seventy - one

74

Three hundred sixty - five

871

Four hundred fifty

450

Seventy - four

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read and Write Numbers Lesson Recording Sheet: Day 1

Word Form Puzzles: Fill in the missing pieces to complete the puzzle.

Standard form:

Place value blocks:

Four hundred fifty-eight

Standard form:

Place value blocks:

Seven hundred twenty-four

Word Form Puzzles: Fill in the ice cream scoops with the word form and place value blocks.

