WHAT IS ASIAN-PACIFIC HERITAGE MONTH?

The month of May is Asian-Pacific Heritage Month! It is a time dedicated to celebrating people of Asian and Pacific Island descent that live in the United States. There are so many different Asian and Pacific Island countries, cultures, and people! In fact, the phrase "Asian-Pacific" refers to the entire continent of Asia as well as the other islands located in the southern Pacific Ocean (between Asia and the Americas).

Every person of Asian or Pacific Island descent has their own unique heritage, traditions, history, and identity, which are celebrated during Asian-Pacific Heritage Month.
